

LIBRARY NEWS AND NOTES from Mary Rice, Circuit Court Law Library, June 2007

N.B.: THE RESTATEMENTS have been moved from the small library room into the large room, and are shelved all together, arranged alphabetically. They are on one of the inner shelves across from the newer A. 2ds.

Bookmarks on tables around the library: You are welcome to take these with you.

SELECTED NEW PUBLICATIONS

ABA/BNA Lawyers' Manual on Professional Conduct.

Three volumes:

The Manual contains model standards and authoritative information on many topics, including fee arrangements, advertising, client trust funds, confidentiality, conflicts of interest, and withdrawal from representation.

The biweekly Current Reports articles summarize and review the latest developments in the area, including court decisions, ethics opinions, disciplinary proceedings, bar association activities, and legislative action.

Ethics Opinions is a collection of current ethics opinions, arranged by state, in digest form. Our volume contains opinions from 2006 to date.

These are dark green loose-leaf notebooks shelved in the small room, left side, top shelf behind the door.
