

LIBRARY NEWS AND NOTES from Mary Rice, Circuit Court Law Library, March/April 2010

BOOKS MISSING

*Pleading Causes of Action in Maryland, by Paul Mark Sandler, James K. Archibald, 4th ed., 2008. (since January)

18 U.S.C.A. Crimes and Criminal Procedure, §§ 4001 to end.

*PLEASE NOTE: The library has purchased another copy of Pleading Causes of Action from MICPEL, which went out of business at the end of February. To avoid losing this copy, the book will be kept on reserve in the library office, available only on request. For your convenience when I am out of the office, a copy of the 3d edition (2004), with its 2007 supplement, will be on the shelf with the other Maryland treatises in the large room of the library.

ONLINE RESOURCES

Federal Regulations--From Sabrina I. Pacifici's "beSpecific," February 3, 2010: Improvements to Regulations.gov Make for Easier Access to Federal Regulations--From the news release: "... Regulations.gov provides one-stop public access to information related to current and forthcoming regulations issued by the federal government. The eRulemaking Program made the following specific-site improvements to Regulations.gov:

* a new rotating panel of images and video clips offering a preview to the latest Web site changes

* a dashboard of regulatory documents housed on Regulations.gov

* a new A-Z index of rules and proposed rules categorized by topic

* instructional video-clips highlighting site functions

* improvements to the site's homepage and search wizard."
